Good morning,

[REDACTED] owns the shopping center property on Carson Street/Main near the Library. He called in 2017 (2 emails attached) and was pleased with the response he received to his complaints. He called today to state that he is having issues with the homeless and he, along with his tenants, are very scared. Some of his tenants state their employees have informed them that they are afraid to report to work for fear of the homeless. He says law enforcement has been out (didn't specify the date), but the problem persists and he specifically requested for all Council to be aware of the issue because he does not know what to do anymore. If the situation doesn't improve, he will lose his tenants or he will have to sell the shopping center.

He would greatly appreciate assistance with the homeless issue and can be contacted at [REDACTED]

Thank you.

Ginger
